Camber Pharmaceuticals Inc. Names Publix Its Retail Customer of the Year for 2010

San Diego, California - Camber Pharmaceuticals Inc. named Publix, headquartered in Lakeland Florida, its customer of the year for 2010 at the recent National Association of Chain Drug Stores (NACDS) conference. Camber Pharmaceuticals Inc., one of the industry's fastest growing generic companies, was pleased to award Publix with its Customer of the Year award for being its top retailer. The award was given to Publix based on the retailer's sales growth with Camber, its business practices, its "partnership" and long term strategic relationship with Camber. The 2009 winner of the Camber Retail Customer of the year was Walmart Inc. headquartered in Bentonville, Arkansas.
